

PHARMACOLOGICAL REVIEWS

A Publication of the American Society for Pharmacology and Experimental Therapeutics

September 2009

Volume 61, Number 3

Perspective

- Answering the Burning Question of How Transient Receptor Potential Vanilloid-1 Channel Antagonists Cause Unwanted Hyperthermia 225
Samir S. Ayoub, John C. Hunter, and Daniel L. Simmons

Review Articles

- The Transient Receptor Potential Vanilloid-1 Channel in Thermoregulation: A Thermosensor It Is Not 228
Andrej A. Romanovsky, Maria C. Almeida, Andras Garami, Alexandre A. Steiner, Mark H. Norman, Shaun F. Morrison, Kazuhiro Nakamura, Jeffrey J. Burmeister, and Tatiane B. Nucci
- Inflammatory Stress and Idiosyncratic Hepatotoxicity: Hints from Animal Models 262
Xiaomin Deng, James P. Luyendyk, Patricia E. Ganey, and Robert A. Roth
- Pituitary Adenylate Cyclase-Activating Polypeptide and Its Receptors: 20 Years after the Discovery 283
David Vaudry, Anthony Falluel-Morel, Steve Bourgault, Magali Basille, Delphine Burel, Olivier Wurtz, Alain Fournier, Billy K. C. Chow, Hitoshi Hashimoto, Ludovic Galas, and Hubert Vaudry
- Therapeutic Targeting of Nuclear Protein Import in Pathological Cell Conditions 358
Mirna N. Chahine and Grant N. Pierce
- Regulation of Skeletal Muscle Physiology and Metabolism by Peroxisome Proliferator-Activated Receptor δ 373
Ewa Ehrenborg and Anna Krook

About the cover: Effects of different cellular stressors on nuclear protein import (NPI), NPC density, and cell growth through MAPK activation. See the article by Chahine and Pierce on page 358 of this issue.
